This is a cooperation agreement between the Arken Church Bible Centre (AC), Kungsängen Sweden and

Name of organization:

Name of leader/contact person:

Name and definition of project/projects:

The cooperation is based on:

☐ Partnership (A-project) (based on a joint vision and work procedure, longlasting relation- and partnership built on mutual confidence, good conditions for development and expansion, possibilities for both parts to gain positive experiences through seminars, courses and fruitful discussions, possibility to make a positive impact in the civil society).

☐ Sponsorship (B-project) (Arken Church is supporting a specific part of a bigger project, projects that have a positive attitude to the vision and work procedures of Arken Church, projects that have a potential for good work relationships to be developed and stabilized during some years, Arken Church can contribute to a positive development through seminars and courses if the partner asks for it).

- Before any changes are made in the agreed cooperation both partners have to discuss the matters and come to a mutual understanding.
- Before any changes are made in programs based on the skeleton agreement "Child sponsorship" the question "What is best for the children?" has to be considered (ref. the Child convention).
- This individual cooperation agreement will last from the signed date until other mutual decision is made.
- For A-projects follow-up and evaluation should be made continually according to the specific agreements and goal plans that are written based on specific concepts.
- Generally a follow-up of the agreement should be made continually once a year, as B-projects can develop into A-projects and vice versa.

☐ Financial agreement (see separate signed document)
